Jobseekers can communicate directly and without a prior appointment with representatives of businesses looking for staff and receive valuable information on the DYPA actions and offered services from specialised employment counsellors and executives from the Service Unit for Medium-sized and Large Businesses (MEMME).

Furthermore, the "Tourism Career Day" event offers the opportunity to businesses in the tourism and other similar sectors to conduct interviews and to collect thousands of CVs to cover their vacancies.

Businesses are looking for staff in a wide range of occupations and in particular: airline tickets and hotel reservation executives, secretaries, passenger and aircraft service staff, accountants and assistant accountants, receptionists, chefs and kitchen staff, service staff, beauty and wellness professionals, lifeguards, cleaning staff, plumbers, airport information officers, drivers, warehouse workers, sales consultants, customer service agents, car paint and body repair technicians, electricians, car mechanics, etc.

Furthermore, visitors can learn about the European Year of Skills and communicate with apprentices and their professors from the DYPA Experimental Apprenticeship Vocational Schools (PEPAS) that offer curricula in specialities related to tourism.
